Thank you.

Christmas Raffle - Flyers about our Christmas Raffle have come home today - tickets on sale next week.

Festive Menu - next week

It is our Festive Menu next week including Christmas Dinner on Wednesday (jacket potatoes will not be available on this day). You will find the menu attached to the email with this week's newsletter.

Reading Logs are being collected at the end of next week, so you still have time to complete your reading and challenges.

Brilliant Books and Reading books are also being collected next week.

In school this week children in:

FS2 have:

- Written captions in literacy
- Looked at shapes with 4 sides in maths
- Found out about the Christmas story
- Learned where Jewish people worship

Year 1 have:

- Written instructions independently in English
- Solved subtraction problems using a variety of strategies in maths
- Completed our D & T project
- Retold the first Christmas in R.E
- Made a variety of Christmas crafts

Year 2 have been:

- Writing instructions for how to do the laundry in the olden days.
- Using different methods to subtract a two digit number from a two digit number.
- Washing! The children have used old fashioned equipment to wash a piece of clothing and then compared it by doing a load of washing in the washing machine.
- Cutting and sewing fabric when making their peg bag, following their design.
- Developing their stamina and changing direction in their Fitness lesson.
- Exploring spoons and what they are made from: wood, metal and plastic. The children then recorded why each material is suitable.

Christmas Performances

Letters and tickets for the Christmas Performances have come home with your child today.
Please keep the tickets safe as you will need to bring them with you on your child's performance day.
Thank you.

Medicines

Please can we ask that for safety, medicines including prescribed medicines are not left in children's bags, reading folders or pockets. Any prescribed medicines that need to be administered/given in school should be discussed with your child's teacher and the appropriate forms completed.
If you have any questions, please speak to your child's teacher.
